

EXPLANATION OF FINANCE CHARGE ON OPEN-END ACCOUNTS

The FINANCE CHARGE on each open-end account shown on this statement is computed by multiplying the daily periodic rate by the daily balance of that account on each day of the billing cycle. The daily balance is determined as follows: For each day of the billing cycle we take the balance of the account for the previous day, add any new loans and charges, and subtract any credits and payments made on that day. FINANCE CHARGES are also subtracted until you make a payment. This gives us the daily balance of your account for that day. The billing cycle is the time between each statement, which will be approximately one month.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT LOANS ON YOUR STATEMENT

If you think your statement is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your statement, write us on a separate sheet of paper at the address shown on your statement as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are unsure about.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your statement that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount in question.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS (EFT)

Telephone us or write us at the phone number or address on your statement as soon as you can if you think your statement or automated teller machine receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a receipt or an EFT transaction on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number.
2. Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days (20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days (90 days if the transfer involved a new account, a point-of-sale transaction, or a foreign-initiated transfer) to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days (20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account. Your account is considered a new account for the first 30 days after the first deposit is made, unless each of you already had an established account with us before this account was opened. We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of documents that we used in our investigation.
